

Duck on Homeland Security

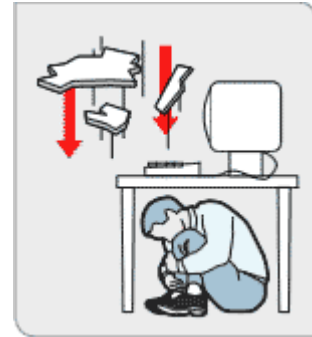

'Protecting the American people is my number one concern.'

Friday, August 27, 2004 Posted: 2:35 PM EDT

DUCK, North Carolina (DNN) — Duck, presidential candidate of the Farmyard Party, explains his “Duck and Cover” homeland protection strategy.

At his weekly press conference, Duck explained, “My most important job as your president is ensuring your safety. I have devised an important strategy, to which I have lent my name and endorsement, to protect the people of this great country.”

Around the nation, citizens have adopted the “Duck and Cover” technique. Community practice sessions ensure that America is a country prepared!

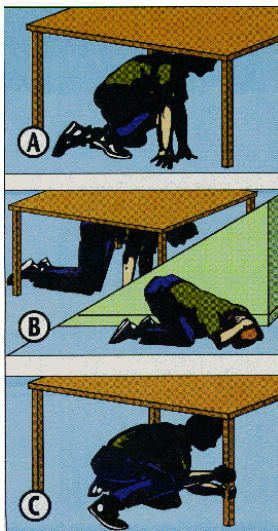

Campaign worker demonstrates Duck's security strategy, known as “Duck and Cover.”

School children “Duck and Cover” to avoid additional standardized testing.

Girl Scouts and frog demonstrate “Duck and Cover” technique.

Three easy steps to “Duck and Cover”

Homeland Security Ducks rush to protect woman from approaching puma.